

To A Consequention of Seath. How soul! the centre of my sinful earth My sinful earth there rebel howers that there Why dost thou pine within and suffer dearth Painting they outward walls in costly day? Why so large cost having so short a Lease Dost thou upon they faded mansion spend I hall worms inheritors of this except Gat who they charge? Is this they bod stands Then soul live thou upon the servants loss Am let that I fine to aggravate thy store Buy terms divine in selling hours of dross Within be fed without be rich no more To shalt that feed on Death that feeds on mes And death once dead there's no more dying their Virtue never dies

The Friently Society Why should at our lot complain, Or greeve at our distresse D: #6 Some think If they can riches gain They gain true happines Alas! how vain is all they gain since life will soon decay tand since we're here with friends so dear Well derre dell cares away production of the

My should the rich the poor despise. Why should the poor repine? A little time will make us all, In equal friendship join; They're much to blame we're all the same Alike evere made of clay And since we're here & c. The only urcumstance in life That I could ever find To soften cares and temper mirth To sweet content of mine Having that stone we have much more Than weath can we'r convey And since we're here &c Let's make the best we can of life Nor nender it a curse de moile a moile For better or for norse

Life at the best is but a gest A dreary wenters day And since we're hereby When age, old age comes exceping on And we are young no more Let's not repine at what we've done Now grieve that youth is vier But cheerfull be as formerly And innocently gay And since we're here with friends so dearn Let's drive dull cares away ( Tobacco Song Tobaceo's but a Indian weed Grows green in the morn cut down atever I shews our decay were all mode of day Think of this when you anok

The pipe that is so lilly white To broke with a touch man's life is but such -Shink of this when you smake tolonecon The hepe that is so foul northin Shows how man's soul is stained with sin It does require to be purged with fine. Think of this &c. The ashes that are left behind Do serve to put us all in mind That into dust return we must Think of this & G. Shat smoke that does so high ascend I shows that mans life must have an end The vapour is gone mans life is done-Think of this &c

The far beyond those mountains that look so distant here. To fight his country's ballles last May-day went my dear Ah! well shall Tremember with bitter sighs the day! why Owen didst thou Leave me and ah! why did The! cruel was my father who did my flight restrain And I neas cruel hearted who could at thome remain With thee my love contented To journey for away Why Owon didst thou leave me and ah! why did I stay Tomarket at Hungotien each morning do I go But how to strike a bangain no longer to I know My father chides at evening my mother all the day Why Owen didst thou leave me and ah! why did I stay

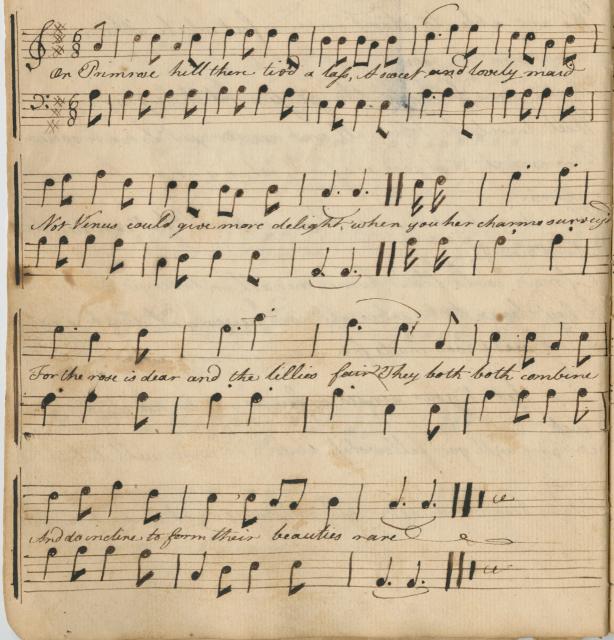

When thinking of my owen my eyes with team doth And then my mother chides me because my wheel standastill How can I think of spinning when Owen's far away Why Owon didst thow leave me of the why did I stay I may it please kind heaven to sheld my love from ham To clash him to my bosom, would every care disarm But ah! I fear far distant will be that happy day I why Owen didst thou leave me and ah why did I stay The Delicate Lin Joung Polly who live at the foot of the hill Whose fame every virgin with envy did fill With beauty she's blist with so Men call her the lass with her delicate air Cample asha

Ine evening last May as & traversed the grove On thoughtless retirement not dreaming of love I chanced to espy this young mymph, I declare And truly she's blest with a delicate our By a murmering brook, on a green mossy bed A chaplet composed where this fair one was laid Surprised and transported Teould notforbear With rapture to gaze on her delicale air When she saw me she blushed and complain's Twas rude And begged of all things that Twould not intrude Tanswered I could not till how I came there But laid all the blame to her delicate air Her heart was the prize I sought to obtain Abegg'd she would grant it to ease my fond fram The neither rejected nor granted my prayin EBut fire all my soul neith her delicate air Ten thousand times since Tive repeated mysuch But still this tormenter affects to be mute Then tell me you swains who have conquered the fair How to win this dear dass with her delicate air

Friendly Advice The olly hearts of gold, come learn to be merry and wiso The hear a prover of old, But poverty we despise, Whatever you say or do, don't drink to distract the brain, but Jarria Project learn to be sober-all. And never get drunk agein o

We in good fellowship meet, here's a graf among three We are able to stand on our feet while others are downkon the foor Waiter come fill up the glasses let it be grag or gin the Well learn to be sober all and never get drunk again wir For enough is as good as a feast, when a man his measur knows Thora drunkard is worse than as beas that can neither Ofmen could their time necall in toverns spentinvain They'd learn to be sober all and never get dunk again But wine was made for man and man was made for Don't let it your senses confound nor drink away your wit Tongrag will good fellowship abuse and wine will distract it Then learn to be sober all and never get down ha again

This fair maid many suiters had And treated them north scorn Until at length young William Gray Came tripping Our the lawn: He was Lorefo'd so neat and he sung so sweet. The mardens fair they did declare Their love to William Gray Fair maid of Inimose hill he cry'd I'm come a wooing here To do not treat me with disdain Nor use me too severes_ For my love tis true and its find on you, Constant I'll be to only thee Thou flower of every few This fair maid gave her head a tops Returned a scornfull air_ I wonder that you will to me your fruitless love declare

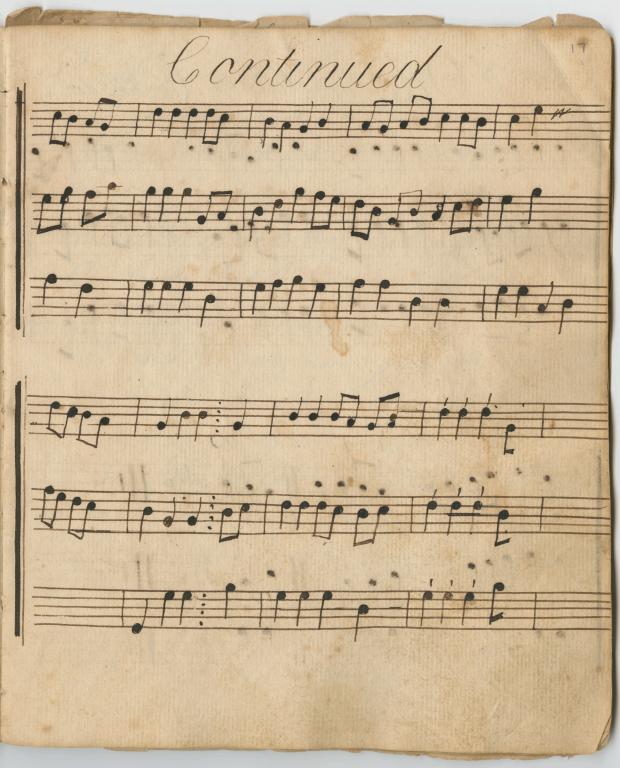

There has nobles great both of land & state Have offer'd me their bride to be So you have come toolate Then with a sigh he took his leave He I said proud girl adiew! Ill guit your charms for wars alarms And glory I'll pursue For love must yield to prawhal field The fife and drum invites to come Will march with sword and sheeld Then with a smile she called him loach The said dear William stay I did it but to try your love So dont you go away For there's none so dear naryet so fair The did agree his bride to be

And married thus they were Then to the church they did repair And tripped with speed away And join'd their hands with Hymens bands And hail'd the papy day Now they love each day, and they we always gay Now who so happy eer ean eir be Shappy always they.

The morning sun shines from the east, And spreads his glong to the west, All nations with his beams are blest, Where, ere his radiant light appears. To securce spreads her lucid ray, Our lands that long in darkness lay, The visits fair Columbia. And sets her sans among the stars Fair freedom her attendant walts To blook the going andriving states To bless the portals of her gates, To crown the young and rising states With laurels of immortal day Whe british yoke, the gallic chain Was urg'd upon her sons in vains All haughty tyrants we disdon And shout long live atmenica.
